It is very happy and pride privilege to be associated with Department of Zoology, B. N. Bandodkar College of Science (Autonomous), Thane as a Member, Editorial Board for International Conference on Applied Zoology (icaz'26) "Sustainable stride for the Future" to be organised by the college on 23-24 January 2026. During the conference there will be deliberations in the form of keynote presentations, oral talks, and poster presentations on conference themes like Biodiversity conservation, Agriculture biology, Biotechnology, Bioinformatics, Entomology, Genetics, Ecology and Environment Science, Cell and Molecular Biology, Veterinary Biology, Sericulture, Apiculture Developmental Biology etc. This college is leading centre for scientific education and research committed to nurture students with values like national thinking, socially responsible and professionally competent. The department of zoology of this college is having great history and experience of organizing such academic and research events.

Organising such type of conferences benefits to bring together the scientists and researchers from the field of applied aspects of varies areas of life sciences in general and zoology in particular like conservation, agriculture, medicine, and environmental management. This initiative will help for sharing the knowledge of fundamental aspects with recent advances in applied zoology and deliberations and collaborations among scientists, researchers, conservationists, and policy makers.

It is also declared that some of the research papers will be considered for publication in reputed Scopus and Web of Science indexed journals or in conference proceedings, which will provide a very good platform for young researchers to publish their research. This is very great opportunity for scientists, research scholars, environmentalists, and researchers in the field of applied zoology to present their research before august gathering of international levels and publish it in very reputed journals at the same time.

So, I congratulate the college and organizers for organizing such a great scientific event and for providing platform to scientific community. I also express my sincere thanks for providing me an opportunity to be associated with such a scientific event as a member of editorial board of international conference, I express my best wishes for success of the conference.
